RE: Legal Services of the Hudson Valley

Dear Mr. Felberbaum,

I am following up on our recent communications. As you know, our office represented you in an Order to Show Cause related to nonpayment eviction case which was then settled. While you did not vacate the property in the timeframe laid out in the Stipulation of Settlement, you did vacate prior to an eviction occurring and, as you know, our office was able to confirm with the Rockland County Sheriff's Department that the eviction that was scheduled for August 7, 2024 was cancelled. Please note, as there was a default in the terms of the settlement your former landlord may exercise his rights under that agreement with regard to seeking a money judgment.

At this time, Legal Services of the Hudson Valley is closing this case because we have completed the assistance that we agreed to provide you and because you have let us know that you vacated the subject property. If you have a new legal issue in the future, you may contact our central intake number at (877) 574-8529. Additionally, you may also complete the below LSHV survey to provide valuable feedback regarding the community needs for our work.

https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/Priority_Survey_2023_English. Please complete this survey at your convenience. Your feedback helps us to better serve our community.

Please let me know if you have any questions or concerns regarding this letter; I can be reached at 845-476-3831 Ext. 190. Our office wishes you the best going forward.

Sincerely,
 Andrew Glikin-Gusinsky
 Supervising Attorney
